*  Comment. SHWE TOKE was first appointed to labor duties in Rangoon in December 1949. TIN NYUNT may be identical with a White Band PVO official who served on the Rangoon District Democratic Front in 1949; he played an active part on behalf of the White Band PVO in helping to incite the strike in early 1949, in company with student leaders.

  Comment. There are possible traces of several of the new Rangoon BCP leaders, but no firm identification can be made. It is possible that SAW LWIN is the student who, in the name of CHIT YI at 75, 12th Street, Rangoon, is receiving foreign correspondence for the All Burma Students' Union.
